

Make a BIG Impact, Keep Businesses Open!

DeKalb County restaurants and local businesses are in critical risk of closure. You can help keep our community strong.

Did you know...

- One $500 catering order could mean a restaurant can stay open another day and keep their employees working and paid.
- Restaurants are deciding daily if they can stay open based on recent sales.
- Restaurants can deliver meals to companies all over DeKalb County -- boosting employee morale.
- DeKalb County restaurants offer prepared and boxed meals for your employees to enjoy for pick up at work or to take home.
- Restaurants are ready and able to do a daily meal replacement program at your site or to your employees' homes in DeKalb County.

The Daily Chronicle has compiled a full List of restaurants offering take-out dining.

More ways to help...

- Consider your local IT company for work-at-home solutions.
- Reach out to the your local hardware store or office supply company for supplies. They can ship direct and/or deliver, and they are real people who know their business well.
- Purchase products, order printed materials, and stock up on other items now that you plan to buy in the coming months.
- Consider safe outdoor or maintenance projects that can be done currently without Covid19 exposure risk using DeKalb County business.
- DeKalb County UNITES and local Chambers can help connect you with businesses and find innovative solutions.

dekalbcountyunites.com • facebook.com/dkcUNITES
twitter.com/dkcUNITES • instagram.com/dkcunites

DeKalb County UNITES is a core team of university and community business leaders, banding together to do all we can as quickly as possible to support small businesses to create economic success.