

March 24, 2021

Great Western Trail Construction Work:

Beginning Monday, April 5, 2021 , construction crews will be working near the west end of the Great Western Trail (near East Old State Road) removing a 100 year old former R.R. drainage culvert and installing a new drainage culvert under Great Western Trail.

Trail users will be able to travel around construction site.

Please use caution near construction site.

Work planned on being completed in April.