Thomas Losey is proposing to construct an accessory structure, in the form of a twenty-seven and a half (27.5) foot tall airplane hangar, on his property located at 16893 Straight Way, in Genoa Township. The DeKalb County Zoning Ordinance requires that accessory structures on residentially zoned properties of less than two (2) acres not exceed a maximum peak height of twenty-one (21) feet. In order to allow the proposed hanger at the requested height, a Variation must be granted from this requirement.
